Counterpanes, CHAPMAN Says So.

There is no fabric so deceptive, so unsatisfactory and so disappointing as the imitation. The genuine Marseilles satin finished counterpanes are made by expert weavers who "know how."

The weaver who made these real Marseilles quilts began at the beginning to do his best work on these and kept right on till they were finished. The price is the only thing about them slighted—we bought them right that is enough—but don't think they are not genuine Marseilles because the price is low.

$2.98. Buys the finest in the lot, 2 1/2 x 2 1/2 yards, (not 2 x 2 1/2), beautiful raised leaf and figured designs. We will leave to you to judge if this counterpane is worth $3.50.

$2.50. An inter-weave (patented) of blue and white raised fancy design. The weave and combination of the blue and white makes a strikingly novel and pretty quilt. Some folks have guessed this one at $2.98.

$1.98. For a cheaper grade genuine Marseilles patterns entirely new, rich scroll designs, heavy and well made in every way. Also large size, heavy, fringed all around, pretty designs, quality $2.25. Price $1.98.

$1.25. A heavy, serviceable, finely woven cotton counterpane, a really serviceable everybody article. Nice enough for any bedroom; and is worth every cent we ask.

On last Monday a very serious accident occurred to a little boy, son of Mr. Smith Moretz, who lives on the farm of Mr. J. E. Buchanan on the head of Clear Fork. A six year old sister of the little boy was using an ax to cut kindling wood, and the child in some way got his hand on the block where she was cutting. The ax came down and cut the child's left hand completely off at the wrist joint. Dr. Crockett was sent for and arrived at the scene about four hours after the accident. Soot had been used to stop the bleeding. Dr. Crockett found it necessary to cut off part of the bone above the wrist joint, and as to get a flap to cover the end of the bone and to stab the proper shape. He says the wound made by the ax was as clean and smooth as if it had been done with a knife.

THE ST. LOUIS STRIKE.

No Important Developments Yesterday in the Situation.

St. Louis, June 12.—There were no important developments in the street car strike situation today. The Transit Company claims to have the situation practically under control by reason of the protection afforded by the police department and the sheriff's posse companies. It was stated by the company's officials that cars were running on every line in the city, going about the regular schedule in some cases, and in all meeting the demands of traffic.

The Southern Electric Line is in operation tonight for the first time since the strike was inaugurated. This line is regarded in police circles as the most difficult of all the lines to run safely after dark. Every precaution was taken to prevent interference and violence. This line traverses the districts where two weeks ago seven persons were wounded by bullets in one day.

Commencement Exercises of Old Dominion College, Richlands, Va.

If the commencement exercises of May 23 and 24 were an exponent of the work of the past session, the instructors in Old Dominion College may well feel assured that their year's work has not been in vain. In the opinion of many they were the best exercises that have ever been rendered at that institution.

On Tuesday evening, May 22, a reception was given in college parlors by the English class of '99-1900. Thirty invited guests were present and enjoyed themselves from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m.

On Wednesday night the annual concert was rendered by Miss Perry's music and elocution classes. Everyone performed her part exceedingly well, winning honor for herself and reflecting credit upon Miss Perry. The music was well rendered and the girls delighted and entertained the large audience with monologues, pantomimes, drills and tableaux.

The class graduating in English rendered the commencement exercises Thursday morning. The class had adopted for its motto the glorious old motto of Kentucky, "United we stand; divided we fall."

After the invocation, Rev. S. W. Moore of Graham delivered the annual address. Rev. Moore gave an eloquent talk on "Opportunities for Obtaining an Education." Everyone was well pleased with his address.

The Salutatory was delivered by Harry Williams and then began the contest for a gold medal. The contestants for this medal were J. L. Neel, E. R. Ball, Miss Ida Bailey, H. G. Williams and W. L. Stinson.

Miss Bailey's essay on "The Ideal Woman" showed care and skill in composition, and she read it exceedingly well. The orations of Mr. Neel, Mr. Ball, Mr. Stinson and Mr. Williams were equal to those of larger institutions. The medal was awarded to J. L. Neel, who chose for the subject of his oration "The Open Door."

On Thursday night the Margaret and the Stuart Literary Societies gave a joint celebration. There were two declamation classes, Junior and Senior. Master Harry Lee Spratt won the medal in the Junior class; Mr. Chas. Ratcliff in the Senior. Perhaps the greatest hit of the evening was a Greek Mirth Drill by the Margaret Literary Society. As the young ladies marched off the stage the audience almost went wild in applause.

The question, "Is the single gold standard to the best interest of our country?" was discussed by four members of the Stuart Literary Society: Mr. C. E. Ball and Mr. G. D. Horton on the affirmative, Mr. C. F. Lambert and Mr. Joseph Ratcliff on the negative. The argument was ably sustained on both sides. The medal was awarded to G. D. Horton.

The reading of the Valedictory by Miss Carrie Williams closed the exercises of the evening.

Rev. R. T. Webb gave an interesting talk while delivering the Diplomas to the graduates in English.

From what I have learned it seems that the work accomplished at this institution during the past session is superior to the work of any previous year, and I predict for Old Dominion College a bright future while under the management of Prof. T. J. Kendrick.

MR. W. C. PENDLETON, Tazewell, Virginia.

Dear Sir:—Will you please send me the REPUBLICAN to this address from now until the last of July?

While busily engaged in the humdrum life of the schoolroom, now and then as I lift my eyes from the page I have been busily scanning and cast them toward the eastern horizon, I involuntarily sigh for the lovely vales and hills of Tazewell. So I trust it will be my good pleasure to have a weekly visit from the REPUBLICAN from now until the time when I shall breathe the invigorating Virginia atmosphere and gaze with rapture on her verdant hills.
